۱۴	متن زیر را بخوانید و به سوالات داده شده در هر قسمت پاسخ دهید. Alternative energy refers to energy sources that can be replaced with fossil fuels. One reason to use them is reducing pollutants and greenhouse gases like carbon dioxide and methane. Wind power is one of these energy sources. Wind power is the ability to use wind to move the blades of wind turbines. This movement can be converted into electricity with the help of an electrical generator. Wind power has some advantages (benefits): there is no pollution, it never runs out (finish), and farming can be still continued on the same land that wind turbines are installed. It has some disadvantages, too. One disadvantage is that if the wind does not blow strongly, you cannot get enough power. Also, large wind farms can have a negative visual effect for people who live nearby. ❖ True/ False 45- Alternative energy sources are clean. a)True b) False 46- Wind turbines can be installed only in places that the wind's speed is high. a) True b) False 47- Farming cannot take place on the same land that wind turbines are installed. a)True b) False ❖ Choose the best answer 48- The word "them" in second line refers to..... a) fossil fuels b) greenhouse gases c) alternative energy sources d) wind turbines	۲
۱۵	متن زیر را بخوانید و به سوالات داده شده در هر قسمت پاسخ دهید. One custom to reflect people's history and values is the way they greet each other. There is a wide range of greetings around the world. These range from the common handshake to other strange customs in some countries. Let's take a look at how the simple action of greeting someone varies greatly from place to place. In the United States and Canada, for example, simple handshake or nod (moving your head up and down) is the norm. The handshake has an interesting origin: It started long ago as a way of showing people that you were not carrying a weapon (e.g. a knife or gun). Shaking the person's right hand while looking him or her in the eye is the usual method. Handshakes are also common in other parts of the world, including Britain and Russia. In Russia, men catch other men's hands very strongly during the handshake. In New Zealand, people also greet each other with a handshake. However, the native Maori people of that country display more physical contact; they press their noses together as a sign of trust and closeness. In other countries, such as France and Belgium, hugging and kissing are more common when two people meet. In those cultures, people kiss each other on the cheeks. The number of times	۴

varies depending on the particular country. In Saudi Arabia, men might hug and kiss each other (but not a woman) on the cheek. Men will also shake hands with other men there. In some Eastern countries, including Korea and Japan, bowing is the traditional greeting. In Japan, if your bow is deeper, you show deeper respect. The strangest custom, however, is likely in Tibet. People there choose to stick out tongue to greet others.
